Professor Louise Burke

Louise is a sports dietitian with nearly 40 years of experience in the education and counselling of elite athletes. She was Head of Sports Nutrition at the Australian Institute of Sport during its existence from 1990-2018 and continues at the AIS as Chief of Nutrition Strategy. She was the team dietitian for the Australian Olympic Teams for the 1996-2012 Summer Olympic Games. Her publications include over 300 papers in peer-reviewed journals and book chapters, and the authorship or editorship of several textbooks on sports nutrition. She is an editor of the International Journal of Sport Nutrition and Exercise Metabolism. Louise was a founding member of the Executive of Sports Dietitians Australia and is a Director of the IOC Diploma in Sports Nutrition. She was awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia in 2009 for her contribution to sports nutrition. In 2014 she was appointed as Chair in Sports Nutrition in the Mary MacKillop Institute of Health Research at Australian Catholic University in Melbourne.

Ruth Wood-Martin MSc, RD, RSEN

Ruth has worked as a Registered Dietitian for over 20 years. She is a registered Sports and Exercise Nutritionist (SENr UK), and is a Professional Member for Nutrition with the Irish Institute of Sport. She currently works full time as the Head of Nutrition with the Irish Rugby Football Union (IRFU). Ruth leads a team of IRFU Performance Nutritionists across the island of Ireland and works directly with the National Senior Men's squad on nutrition education and supplementation as well as advising on catering schedules, hydration and recovery strategies during National competition.

Dr Sharon Madigan PhD, RD, RSEN, FFSEM (Hon)

Sharon is Head of Performance Nutrition at the Sport Ireland Institute, and is responsible for delivery and coordination of nutrition services for elite Irish athletes across a range of sports, including for the Irish Boxing Team since 2003. A strong focus of her position is also engagement in high performance research. She has delivered nutrition support to athletes over four Olympic cycles and other major championships such as European, World and EU championships. Sharon has a PhD in Nutrition Education and has previously worked with Ulster Rugby (2008-11) and delivered services at the Sports Institute Northern Ireland (2002-09). She has also significant experience as a clinical dietitian within the Belfast Trust. Sharon was awarded an Hon Fellowship of the Faculty of Sport and Exercise Medicine, RSCI in 2016.

Dr Philip Doyle MB BCh BAO BSc

Philip took up rowing while studying medicine at Queen's University Belfast. He was selected for the Rowing Ireland Senior High Performance Team while at QUB and competed at the 2018 World Rowing Championships in the heavyweight men's double sculls with partner, Ronan Byrne. The pair will be representing Ireland at the Olympic Games in Tokyo after winning silver at this year's World Championships. Philip was a keen hockey player at school at Banbridge Academy and played for Ulster and Ireland under age teams.

Kellie Harrington

Kellie is world champion boxer. She is eight times Irish Elite Champion and two-time world medallist at two different weight categories; silver at 64kg in 2016 and gold at 60kg in 2018. Kellie represented Ireland in the European Games in Minsk earlier this year and captained both men and women's teams. Only recently back from a hand injury for Minsk, she reached the final but had to pull out after re-injury. Kellie also works in a psychiatric hospital in Dublin, which she loves.
